Seconded: Gary Johnson

QUEENSLAND CORRESPONDENCE

BUNDABERG:

Bundaberg are hoping to be able to use a part of the space that is marked in red on the enclosed map.

- This part of the space is directly behind Aaron Pink. Gary Johnson explained that they will try to mark this out for this year.
- School to stay on for extra week

CALLIDE VALLEY (BIOLEA):

Comps required. Office sent. Who is the Delegate please advise committee. Asking for more Guild equipment for their 2018 show. They have a fuller program. Would also like Complimentary tickets.

- Tickets already sent.

CHARLEVILLE:

Show Society not happy with Showmen taking bins to camping area and rubbish left generally on grounds. Cost Committee to clean up. Also dogs must be tied up at the camp not wandering grounds.

- Letter to be sent to Charleville explaining that Skip bins at either end of the camping area are not appropriate. Wheelie bins need to be in the camp area.
- Also assure them that the dog situation is taken seriously, and the dog owners will be advised that they must be tied up at their camps and not in the amusement area.

- Car park on the New England highway.
- Room to put everyone up including showbags.
- Same dates as Gold Coast show
- Sub-Committee to be formed for the show.

NOISE:

A lot of complaints about noise from "The Beast" and "Extreme".
Jamie and Tasman Pickett.

- These complaints are costing members their livelihood, as they cannot occupy their space anywhere in the vicinity of the rides in question and often vacate their space. This was really offensive at Maryborough and Gympie.
- Due to these complaints, the meeting voted and agreed to a bond of $1,000 to placed on these rides. This Bond remains in place for the remainder of the year and will be forfeited if there are further complaints.

TOOWOOMBA

Charlie Pink asked why the area was moved?

- Luke Hennessy explained that it was an attempt to keep the committee on side.

CANTEEN:

Susan Marshall would like to work the Canteen in the established SGA positions that have been worked in past years. Beginning at Maryborough and throughout the North Run.

- Granted.

FACEBOOK

Members not happy about the 50cents a foot levy. Meeting was informed that it went to a members vote at the Sydney Easter meeting and no one objected at the meeting. Vote was passed unanimously.

Moved: Bluey Stratton
Seconded: Jim Marshall
